MANUFACTURING WEEK

Manufacturing Week 6C

U.S. manufacturing experienced a substantial decline in employment from 2000 to 2010 due largely to the 2008 Great Recession and the loss of jobs in the manufacturing sector. The decline was not unique to the U.S. but the U.S. lost more jobs than any other country. The decline was not unique to the U.S. but the U.S. lost more jobs than any other country.

Some facts about women in manufacturing:

- They made up about 41% of the American workforce but only 30% worked in manufacturing.
- One out of four manufacturing jobs was held by a woman.
- They earned on average 14% more than men in manufacturing.
- Although men still hold the majority of jobs in manufacturing, the number of women in manufacturing has increased by 45% since 2000.
